 Frank Duong Primary Examiner Art Unit: 2666

Attachment: The proposed amendment added new limitation of "time division ... provided equipment" in claim 10 raises new issues because it would change the scope of the invention originally claimed and previously prosecuted. Thus, it would require further consideration and/or search. Applicants' arguments in the Remarks of the outstanding response have been considered. However, the arguments are not persuasive. In the Remarks, on page 9, pertaining a limitation in the preamble not properly given patentable weight by Examiner, Applicants argue "the plural channels" preceded by definite article "the" referred to "the plural channels" recited in the preamble. In response Examiner respectfully disagrees. The article "the" in a singular case refers to limitation previously recited. However, in a plurality case "the" is not necessary refers to the previously recited limitation , but "said" would. Therefore, Examiner asserts the Office Action dated 01/10/05 has properly treated the preamble of the claim, contradistinction to the Applicants' arguments. As for the arguments pertaining the applied arts fail to teach certain claimed limitations, please refer to the Office Action dated 01/10/05 for response. Examiner contends the Office Action has clearly pointed out the claimed limitations corresponding to the teaching in the applied arts
